SECTION B – PROGRAM INFORMATION

The AST-facilitated cohort is a group learning process with a qualified discussion leader. You will join in a group learning session (Zoom or Teams) once per week (times and dates to be determined) to discuss the teaching videos and written materials. You will view the videos and read the materials prior to the online class session. You will need a high-speed internet connection for your computer to access the materials for this program.

After your registration is complete and you have paid your fees, you will receive a Workbook in PDF format, which includes all the materials and internet links you will need. Separately, you will be sent a password or passwords to access the online teaching videos. Finally, the cohort facilitator will contact you to organize the class sessions.

SECTION C – FEES

Persons studying toward the Certificate in Stewardship as part of the AST-facilitated cohort pay an all-inclusive fee of $600. Fees may rise after January 1, 2025.
